

GATHER

We gather to worship and grow in groups. During this time of social distancing, we need to stay spiritually connected and “Let us think of ways to motivate one another to acts of love and good works. And let us not neglect our meeting together, as some people do, but encourage one another” (Hebrews 10:24-25).

Here are some ways that you can connect with God and one another during this season:

We’re excited to give you free access to RightNow Media, a library of video resources for all ages from well-known Christian leaders around the world. Streaming directly to your computer, tablet, or mobile devices, you’ll find the online Bible Study Library includes content for every age group and every spiritual season. Here is how you can get started:

- Create a free online account by clicking the link <https://www.rightnowmedia.org/Account/Invite/mabc>
- Ask others to join you and meet virtually for discussion, encouragement, and prayer.

Life Groups at The Mount, stay connected with your group! Here are some resources to help you:

- Use the RightNow Media resource above and do a study together. Watch the video and then meet virtually during your normal group time to discuss the content, encourage one another, and pray together.
- Sermon Based Discussion Guides will be posted to this page weekly beginning with the April 5th sermon. Read the daily scripture readings posted online beginning the Monday prior to Sunday’s sermon. Then as a group, pick a time a service time to watch the sermon online together. Give a shout out to each other during the service. Then meet virtually during your normal group time to discuss the sermon, encourage one another, and pray together.
- GroupMe is great texting app allowing your group to communicate quickly with one another for that added encouragement and prayer in between your virtual gatherings.

Join an online life group! God created us to be in community with one another. During this time of social distancing, it’s even more important that we use technology to stay connected. If you are not currently in a life group, we are launching NEW sermon based online groups for you to connect with. Check out Group Finder and sign up for a group that works with your schedule.
